Epoch Appoints New Managing Director

Industry Veteran Emily Baker Joins Global Investment Team

NEW YORK—September 19, 2007—Epoch Investment Partners, Inc., a leading investment manager and investment adviser and the operating subsidiary of Epoch Holding Corporation (Nasdaq: EPHC), announced today that Emily Baker has joined the company as a Managing Director, Senior Analyst/Portfolio Manager within the investment team in a continued effort to enhance Epoch's U.S. and Global Portfolio Management teams.

Ms. Baker will be responsible for supporting the Global Absolute Return and Global Choice Products while reporting directly to William W. Priest, CIO of Epoch Investment Partners.

“We welcome Emily to Epoch with confidence that she will have a meaningful impact on Epoch's growth in our investment management and investment advisory services,” said Priest. “Her extensive investment background and understanding of our investment philosophy will allow her to make a contribution almost immediately.”

Before joining Epoch, Ms. Baker served as Partner with Level Global, a $2 billion hedge fund. Prior to that, she was Partner and Senior Equity Analyst at Artisan Partners, a $22 billion EAFE manager from 2002 to 2005. Ms. Baker has also held the role of a Senior European Equity Analyst at Chilton Investment Company and was an Equity Analyst for three years at Credit Suisse Asset Management following large cap European securities.

Ms. Baker received both her B.A. and M.B.A. from Vanderbilt University.
